

MN Wetland Professional Certification Program

Floristic Quality Assessment Class- June 20, 2023 (6 CEC)

Location: MNDOT Shoreview Training Center (see map)

This course is intended for wetland professionals with a basic understanding of botany and functional assessments. The course will cover the key concepts and components of the Rapid FQA, field sampling protocol, metric calculations, and reporting.

Agenda (9am-5pm):

Check in

Intro to FQA Concepts and Methods

Group demonstration field exercise (Rice Creek Regional Park)

Lunch (1hr) (then meet at Blaine Wetland Sanctuary- see map below)

Small Group Field Exercise (Blaine Wetland Sanctuary)

- Introduction to site

- Field exercise

Travel back to training center

Data input, interpretation, and wrap up

Trainer: Michael Bourdaghs

Field Trainers: Paul Bockenstedt, Mark Gernes, Jason Husveth

Training will be held in Room 1 of the MNDOT Training and Conference Center in Shoreview.

MnDOT Training and Conference Center
1900 County Road I West
Shoreview, MN 55126

651-366-5252
Fax: 651-366-5273

MnDOT Training and Conference Center
1900 County Road I West

Blaine Wetland Sanctuary Location Map

Meet at parking lot after lunch

